

AIR FORCE JAG CORPS

Attention: Law Students (1Ls and 2Ls) February 2022 Graduate Law Program (GLP) (1Ls) and One Year College Program (OYCP) (2Ls)

Starting 1 Nov. 2021 apply online at: www.airforce.com/JAG

- Select the “Apply Now” button under the “Becoming a JAG” section

Deadlines:

- January 10, 2022: Interview with AFROTC Detachment Commander (recommend completing in November or December)
- January 10, 2022: Complete and submit the online application
- February 1, 2022: Complete interview with Staff Judge Advocate

Eligibility:

1. Attending an ABA-approved law school at an institution that either offers an AFROTC program or allows you to take AFROTC courses at a nearby school via a cross-town agreement
2. Meet HQ AFROTC entry standards
 - Must interview with the AFROTC Detachment Commander before you apply to the JAG Corps (the earlier the better!)
3. Be a Citizen of the United States of America (birth or naturalization)
4. Be able to commission as an officer before the age of 40

Selection Criteria:

5. The Air Force JAG Corps selects applicants based on the “whole person” concept
6. Selection factors include: Academic performance; work experience; leadership traits; extracurricular activities; personal integrity; awards and honors; adaptability and flexibility; motivation for service; legal writing/analytical skills; fitness; and military records (if applicable)

*Your appointment as a judge advocate is contingent upon providing proof of legal licensing and completion of the Air Force medical requirements (after selection)
