LETS TALK $$$

EventBrite

$50/Person

If you can, Pay TODAY!!

Collections are open for 2 weeks

Plainly, If you don't pay,
EVERYONE SUFFERS.
EVERYONE must pay for us to have traditional tams for graduation. It's an either/or situation.

Wai-Lin is NOT trying to practice Debtor-Creditor law.....please don't do this to me. However, I will be reaching out if you have not paid.

- Note: We wanted to choose a reliable platform that all students could use (unlike venmo or cashapp; But also, a reliable platform, so we could keep up with our books and manage those who have order and who have not. Otherwise, this would be a severely difficult and unreliable process. Therefore, some of the collections will be "taxed" by EventBrite's nominal fee (2-3%)
- Additional Costs may be incurred for tam shipping and handling and any incidental composite costs + Faculty Photos and Costs (20-30 individuals who may or may not use archived photos)
- Collections will get us at $5450.00, and any additional costs will be at the expense of SBA.

Tam Quote = $3,570

Composite Quote:

$$\begin{aligned} & $15.99/\text{person} + 10\% \text{ discount} + \text{Shipping & Handling} \\ & = ($1742.91 - $174.30) = $1568.61 + $250 \text{ (S&H)} \\ & \qquad \qquad \qquad = $1818.61 \end{aligned}$$

Gross Amount: Tam +
Composite = $5388.61

Supplier Info

SBA is in a long-term binding contract with our composite supplier, so we are getting the best fixed rate for our photos.

SBA is bound to order or tams along with the same suppliers that the University uses. The University will supply us with FLAT TOPS, but that is not typical law school regalia.

Working with other orgs to save $$ on cord shipping + bulk discounts

The University pays for the other regalia
